

I believe that, once again, the ARRL has taken the correct action to further the amateur radio operators goals and capacity to achieve more enjoyment from their hobby. Also the services provided to the community in times of danger or natural disasters will be increased with the influx of new operators and advancement of those who will be authorized operation on the HF frequencies. Please give utmost consideration to rapid acceptance of this proposal.